

ABSTRACT

A bicycle wheel rim made of a single part using structural fibre based material, preferably carbon fibre material, with two circumferential wings for anchoring the tyre, which extend radially outwards from the two sides of the outer peripheral wall of the rim.

(Figure 3)